

University Club 2019 Summer Junior Tennis Clinics June 3rd –August 9th

Program Goal: Our goal is to help you and your family take your tennis game to the next level, build friendships, get a great workout and have fun in the process.

We look to provide all juniors with the opportunity to improve their tennis and develop skills in a flexible program which is fun, motivating, nurturing and inspiring.

Level Descriptions

Level 1 Little Stars (ages 4-6) Red Dot Balls This is a fun introduction to tennis with an emphasis on hand eye coordination, movement and fun games	Level 4: Advanced/Tournament Training Yellow Ball Players (invite only) Designed for the player that wants to start competing in the novice/ challenger USTA events. This is more intense than the Advanced Stars. The players in this program have a good grasp on the fundamentals of the game. Strategy, technique and match practice are a major component in this program.
Level 2: Future Stars (ages 7-12) Orange Balls Players are grouped by ability levels and range from beginners to novice players who have some private instruction. These players will be working on the ability to sustain a rally and consistently get their serves in. Emphasis will be on the development of proper fundamentals, learning how to keep score, basic rules, playing games that increase a player’s court awareness and having fun!	Level 5: High Performance / Tournament Training Yellow Ball Players (invite only) This is an intense, rigorous program. The Junior High Performance players will be trained to compete in USTA tournaments, high school and college play. Players must be prepared to work very hard and commit to practicing and goal setting. All phases of the game: physical, mental and tactical will be worked on.
Level 3: Player’s Club (ages 7-12) Green Dot &amp; Yellow Balls Designed for advanced players who are still working on their technical skills and need more match play experience. These players want to eventually move up into the Level 4 or 5 of Junior Performance Program. Proper fundamentals will be stressed, along with drills, conditioning, and singles &amp; doubles strategizing.
